

Conscious Safari and Nature Immersion

18 May 2016

Day 1: Wednesday 18th May

Arrival and transfer to Johannesburg Hotel. We recommend travellers from international destinations get an extra night in Johannesburg before day one of the tour

Optional visit to highly acclaimed Origins Centre (www.origins.org.za) depending on arrival time. The Origins Centre is a world-class museum dedicated to exploring and celebrating the history of modern humankind, telling the story of the emergence of human beings and humanity in southern Africa. It boasts an extensive collection of rock art from the Wits Rock Art Research Institute (RARI), affording visitors the opportunity to view the earliest images made by humans, found in South Africa. Lunch and dinner not included as people will be arriving at different times.

Day 2: Thursday 19th May - B, L, D

Early departure and drive to the charming village of Kaapsehoop in the magnificent province of Mpumalanga (translates as "the place where the sun rises") and visit to Adams Calendar, the 35,000 year old monolith arrangement, aligned to the constellations and known as an ancient ceremonial site.

Mystic and High Shaman of Africa Credo Mutwa has both spoken about Adam's Calendar and experienced initiations there. The area is also famous for its population of wild, free roaming horses which are considered guardians of this powerful site.

Lunch at the charming Bohemian Café overlooking natural stone formations on the hills.

Afternoon of walking local waterfall and portals, or visiting local artists and craftsmen.

Dinner at Kaapsehoop.

Day 3: Thursday 19th May - B, L, D

First light visit to Adam's Calendar...could be through the mists or to witness a glorious sunrise depending on the weather.

Move on to the serene beauty of Boondocks (www.boondocks.co.za) for an afternoon swim and stay overnight.

Dinner at Boondocks.

B: Breakfast L: Lunch D: Dinner

Day 4: Friday 20th May - B, L, D

Boondocks is an exquisite off the grid retreat with a very high vibration and pure nature. We will embark on a labyrinth ceremony after breakfast and opening the day, and then have the afternoon to relax, enjoy the natural spring water pools and go walking.

Late afternoon circle and dinner and preparation for entry into animal kingdom.

Dinner at Boondocks.

Day 5: Sunday 22nd May - B, D

Depart Boondocks, drive through Kruger (from Malelane Gate) to Rhino Lodge (www.isibindi.co.za/rhino-post/).

Kruger is bigger than the country of Israel being the flagship nature reserve proclaimed in 1926 by President Kruger, to bring a halt to the unbridled hunting practices of the early colonialists who were wiping out the wildlife.

Rhino Post Lodge is set on the banks of the Mutlumvi Riverbed on a private concession in the Kruger National Park. It is this beautiful and luxurious game lodge, which ensures an unforgettable African wilderness experience.

Late afternoon game drive and dinner at lodge.

Day 6: Monday 23rd May - B, L, D

Rhino Lodge in Kruger Park.

Early morning and evening game drives. Time to relax and circle in middle of day.

Dinner at lodge.

Day 7: Tues 24th May - B, L, D

Depart Rhino Lodge after morning game drive and brunch. Drive through Kruger, having lunch at Satara Camp, and then on to Blyde River Canyon, the third largest canyon in the world, home to some of the most phenomenal rock formations you will ever see, and pristine primal energy that guarantees to stop you in your tracks in wonder.

Arrive late afternoon at Blyde Canyon Lodge (www.blyderivercanyonlodge.com).

Dinner at Blyde Canyon Lodge.

B: Breakfast L: Lunch D: Dinner

Day 8: Wed 25th May - B, L, D

Boat ride in the canyon past the Hippo pools, with possible crocodile and raptor sightings. Afterwards we walk through magical indigenous forest along the river to the sweet and powerful waterfall.

Lunch in the garden at the celebrated Cotton Club Restaurant and afternoon to relax.

Dinner at Blyde Canyon Lodge.

Day 9: Thursday 26th May - B, D

Day outing along Panorama Route - we drive to the top of the canyon through the glorious mountains and spend time at the lip of the canyon, overlooking "Three Rondavels" and the span of mountains, rivers and dam beneath us. At this site is an ancient altar, said by Credo Mutwa to be the first in the world, which is guarded by rainbow lizards. We drive on to take in the vast view from God's Window, and then to have lunch and do a little shopping in the small town of Graskop.

Dinner at Blyde Canyon Lodge

B: Breakfast L: Lunch D: Dinner

Day 10: Friday 27th May - B, L, D

Tsau: Global White Lion Protection Trust

We arrive on the remarkable White Lion territories deep in the heart of Timabavati (translates as “the place where the star lions came down”) in the early afternoon, circle.

Afternoon game drive to introduce you to the magnificent lion families who live here. Breathe deeply, for you are about to meet the most potent and dynamic beings on the planet (www.whitelions.org).

Day 11: Saturday 28th May - B, L, D

Tsau: Global White Lion Protection Trust

Early morning and evening visits to lions.

Day to circle and do ceremony at the monumental King Quartz Crystal Lion sculpture, known as the Rock Star Lion by internationally renowned artist Andries Botha.

Day 12: Sunday 29th May - B

Tsau: Global White Lion Protection Trust

Morning visit to the lions, closing circle after breakfast.

Midday departure to Hoedspruit airport (where they serve Amarula milkshakes - a must!)

Flight to Johannesburg, arriving at 3pm. Please make sure you leave at least 3 hours between the arrival of the flight from Hoedspruit and the departure of your onward flight.

Please note: the above itinerary is an outline of where we'll be but if we find other exciting adventures along the way or we're impacted by natural events then changes are possible. We'll endeavour to keep you informed but remember, we will be informed by nature and she's very likely to surprise us!
